

Lawyer at the Paris Bar since July 2019, Léa graduated from Paris 1 Panthéon Sorbonne University where she obtained a degree in International Business Law.

She also holds a Certificate of International Legal Studies, awarded by the Institut de Hautes Etudes Internationales (IHEI) of the University Paris II Panthéon Assas.

Léa also holds a Master's degree in International Dispute Resolution from the University of Poitiers.

As part of her training, Léa completed several internships in the legal department of KENZO and in the Arbitration department of law firms, such as DLA PIPER and BETTO SERAGLINI.

She has also worked at the International Criminal Court, in the Netherlands.

Léa joined LIGNER & ROCHELET in June 2019, where her main area of practice is the dispute resolution.

sartorio@ligner-rochelet.com

Vcard